

Vulnerable Sector Screening Police Check Helpful Hints

Please check with your local Police Services to see how long it will take to process your Vulnerable Sector Screening (VSS) Police Check.

In some areas it is taking between 4 and 12 weeks to obtain a VSS Police Check if you have lived in more than one city, town or geographic area in the last five years it could take longer as it must be checked with the police services in each place you lived.

Some police services require the signature of a College representative on the application form for the Vulnerable Sector Screening Police Check. If you require a signed letter or application from the college, please contact your program area.

NOTE: not all Police Services require a signature and you may be able to apply directly at their office. Call them to find out where you have to go to submit the application.

Please obtain a form from your local policing office – some police services make these forms available online.

OPP Vulnerable Sector Check Police Check application forms can be found on the Georgian website under <http://www.georgiancollege.ca/admissions/forms/placement-requirements/>

Please check with your police services or on their websites for fee information and to find out what ID is accepted:

- Usually you need two pieces of Government issued ID and one of them MUST be a photo ID
- Health cards and SIN cards are NOT accepted as proof of identity.
- Some police services accept cash only and will not make change

If your police services is taking longer than 6 weeks to issue Vulnerable Sector Screening Police Check you may want to apply now!

Agencies will usually want your Vulnerable Sector Screening Police Check to be current within 3 to 6 months of your placement start date.
