Description

English as a Second Language (ESL) students are prepared for success in General English. Students are provided with introductory through intermediate level English language courses in the skill areas of reading, writing, speaking, grammar, vocabulary, and listening. The program curriculum includes classroom and technology-assisted ESL learning. ESL students explore Canadian and intercultural contexts through everyday situations.

Career Opportunities

While most students choose General ESL courses as a pathway to English for Academic Purposes (EAP), some graduates of the program may find employment in occupations requiring intermediate English language skills. Many graduates also transfer their acquired English language skills to career advancement and opportunities in other countries.

Program Learning Outcomes

The graduate has reliably demonstrated the ability to:

- work independently and collaboratively in groups;

- employ effective English language communication skills to function independently in everyday conversations and written tasks;
- comprehend information presented in a variety of forms;
- apply functional language skills in a variety of Canadian social situations.
