CRIMINAL RECORDS

Vulnerable Sector Police Record Checks

Prior to having direct contact with patients and other vulnerable persons, community agencies and hospitals require a satisfactory Vulnerable Sector Police Record Check. This police check must be renewed every twelve months (unless otherwise stated on Page 3).

Our Hospital, Long Term Care and Paramedic Service partners require that students' VSS be current within 6 months. Please check Page 3 to see if this is a requirement of your program.

Please note: depending on the service used this process may take up to 12 weeks or more, so be sure to apply early. Students are required to carry their VSS/Police Check to the clinical area. A representative in the agency may ask to see that you have a valid Vulnerable Sector Screen/Police Check at any time.

Failure to obtain a vulnerable sector (or extended) police clearance will prevent students from starting their clinical course and may impede or prevent successful completion of the course.

Many regulatory colleges require a Vulnerable Sector Screen/Criminal Record Check prior to registration. In the event that the applicant has a criminal record they will not be permitted to write the provincial exam and thus not become a certified professional. If the applicant has a criminal record or obtains a criminal record during undergraduate education a pardon must be obtained to be eligible for provincial exams.

Vulnerable Sector Police Record Checks are available through your local police service only. Toronto Police and South Simcoe Police have specific forms and requirements, please see a Placement Officer to obtain these. OPP require a particular letter and form, please see your Program Coordinator for additional information.
