Student Code of Conduct

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of the Student Code of Conduct is to define the responsibility of all Georgian College and University Partnership Centre students to act in a manner that respects the rights, safety and wellbeing of others. The Code defines the general standard of conduct expected of students, provides examples of non-academic conduct that may be subject to disciplinary action by the College, sets out the disciplinary sanctions that may be imposed, and describes the disciplinary procedures that the college will follow. Academic misconduct is addressed through the academic misconduct procedure within the Academic Policies and Procedures.

Every effort should be made to address minor misconduct informally. The intent of the Code is to provide a framework to resolve issues when civility and respect for the rights of others break down and informal resolution is not possible. These principles and values can only be realized in an atmosphere of respect, safety and security. In exercising its authority under this Code of Conduct, the College and those acting on behalf of the College will ensure that they apply the principles of natural justice and fairness, act in good faith and apply their discretion reasonably.

In the context of this Code, the goal and responsibility of Georgian is to provide a learning community encompassing all aspects of college life, such that the pursuit of education and personal growth can take place in a safe and welcoming environment. Identifying quickly and responding effectively to instances of non-academic misconduct is vital to maintaining a respectful and inclusive learning environment. The Code includes coverage of incidents that occur both on and off campus, which affect the Georgian workplace, living and study environment.

2. THE PROCEDURE

2.1. Scope of Code

- 2.1.1. In the exercise of its disciplinary authority and responsibility, the College treats students as free to organize their own personal lives, behaviour, and associations, subject to all local, municipal, provincial, and federal laws, and the policies or procedures of the College, including this Code of Conduct.
- 2.1.2. The Code applies to student conduct from admission to a course or program until that person has completed the course or graduated from the program, even though the conduct may occur before classes begin or after classes end, as well as during the academic year and during periods between terms of actual enrolment.
- 2.1.3. Nothing in this Code shall be construed to limit freedom of expression as provided by law, provided such activities are orderly, do not disrupt college operations, and do not unreasonably interfere with the right of other members of the College community to use and enjoy the college's learning and working environment and facilities.
- 2.1.4. Whenever appropriate, the College encourages informal resolution of minor misconduct.
- 2.1.5. Professional organizations and associations affiliated with specific college programs may have standards of behaviour or a specific code of ethics which students may be responsible to understand and comply with. Any violations of the foregoing standards will be dealt with in accordance with the professional organization or association. Where breach of the foregoing standards is also a breach of this Code of Conduct, the student may be subject to disciplinary sanctions under this Code as determined by the academic Dean or designate.
- 2.1.6. This Code applies to:
 - 2.1.6.1. All conduct that occurs on the College campus.
 - 2.1.6.2. Off-campus conduct at a College sanctioned event or when the student is acting as a designated representative of the College or a student organization, club, or team, or under the direct or indirect supervision of the College.
 - 2.1.6.3. Off-campus conduct which adversely affects the rights of a member of the college community to use and enjoy the College's learning and working environment and facilities, conduct which could adversely affect the health and safety of a member of the College community or conduct that interferes with the achievement of the College's objects, mission or vision.
- 2.1.7. Any student who engages in misconduct either directly, indirectly or as an accomplice is subject to the disciplinary sanctions of this Code, regardless of the action or inaction of civil authorities. Nothing in this Code precludes the College from referring an incident to the appropriate law enforcement agency, including Campus Safety and Security before, during, or after disciplinary action is taken by the College under this Code.

- 2.1.8. All students are also subject to all local, municipal, provincial, and federal laws, and/or civil proceedings notwithstanding, and in addition to, disciplinary action taken by the College.
- 2.1.9. Where the circumstances giving rise to a complaint are also the subject matter of another College policy or procedure, or Codes from affiliated organizations, such as the Ontario College Athletic Association (OCAA) or the Residence (Campus Living Centres), the Dean will work with the administrator responsible for the other policy/procedure or Code to determine under which policy/procedure or Code the matter shall be dealt with first.
- 2.1.10. Where the subject matter of the complaint is more appropriately dealt with under another college policy or procedure, the Dean or relevant Department Administrator may exercise his/her discretion not to deal with the complaint and recommend that it be dealt with and decided under the other policy or procedure.

2.2. Student Rights

- 2.2.1. All students of the Georgian community have the right to live their lives, to study, to learn and to work without unreasonable interference, disruption, or upset caused by the actions of another person.
- 2.2.2. All Georgian students have the right to be treated in a manner which is respectful, honest, and free from discrimination or harassment on protected grounds.
- 2.2.3. In common with all other individuals in Ontario, students enjoy rights under both the Ontario Human Rights Code and the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms. That enjoyment is subject to such limits contained therein. The Charter of Rights and Freedoms guarantees the rights and freedoms set out therein, but such rights are subject to such reasonable limits prescribed by law as can be demonstrably justified in a free and democratic society. Such reasonable limits may include legal rights of property owners or rights of individuals to peaceful enjoyment of premises. The extent of a right or a freedom may reasonably vary with the circumstances so that an exercise of a right which may be appropriate in a public place may not be appropriate in an educational institution.
- 2.2.4. Students have a right to have college rules and regulations, and in particular this Code, adhered to by all students. Students have a right to expect all other members of the College community to meet the standard of acceptable behaviour outlined in this Code. In addition, students may question, seek, review, or require an explanation of college regulations without fear of repercussion.
- 2.2.5. Students shall have certain procedural rights as set out herein. The procedural rights include giving the student an opportunity to respond to the allegations against her/him and the right to appeal.

2.3 Responsibilities:

APPENDIX 2

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

1. Complaint Procedure

This procedure addresses complaints brought against students arising in non-academic contexts. Informal and formal processes are in place to assess and deal with complaints. The College encourages the informal resolution of disputes, through Department and Campus Administrators or Associate Deans. At any point during the informal process, the person handling the complaint may consult with the Dean of Students or Manager of Conflict Resolution and Investigations (Office of Campus Safety and Security), or may refer the matter to the Dean of Students or Manager of Conflict Resolution and Investigations.

Complaints that occur within a college department or school that are of a non-academic nature may be addressed informally with the Department Administrator or Associate Dean, as appropriate. If a complaint requires investigation and/or may affect the academic standing or progress of a student, the complaint will be referred to the Campus Safety and Security Office for investigation and recommended sanction, if warranted.

1.1. The Parties

The parties to a Complaint are:

- i) The complainant: an individual who makes a complaint pursuant to this Code, and
- ii) the student: an individual named in a complaint who is alleged to have violated this Code.

1.2. Time Limits

Complaints should be made as soon as possible but within no more than twenty (20) business days after the circumstances giving rise to the complaint. In extenuating circumstances, a complaint filed beyond the twenty (20) business day limitation may be considered. All other time limits prescribed in this procedure may be extended with the agreement in writing of the parties where reasonable circumstances exist for extending the time limits. In these circumstances, the parties will be advised of the reasons and notified of the duration of the extension.

1.3. Assistance for the Parties

- 1.3.1. Individuals involved in the complaint process at any stage, while not required, may seek assistance/support from and/or be accompanied by another person of her/his choice (for example a trusted friend, a counselor or a member of the executive of the Students' Administrative Council).
- 1.3.2. The role of the support person is to act as a resource and provide support/advice to the party. The support person will not be permitted to speak or advocate on behalf of the party. In the event that a party chooses to retain legal counsel, or another paid advisor, as her/his support person, the party shall be solely responsible for the cost incurred.

1.3.3. Where appropriate, the Dean of Students, or designate, will provide complainants, students, and others affected by the investigation with information regarding counselling services available through the College or through outside agencies.

1.4. Stages of the Complaint Process

The following process will apply to complaints made pursuant to this Code. Where the complainant so desires, a complaint may withdraw at any time during the process described below. Where circumstances warrant, the College may continue to act on an issue arising in a complaint even when it has been formally withdrawn.

Step 1 – Reporting and Informal Resolution

1.4.1. Precipitating Event

When a student breaches or is suspected of breaching the Code, the college official who observes, suspects, or has a report of the breach shall take appropriate action. In the case of minor misconduct, an Oral Warning/Temporary Dismissal or Violation Notice may be issued by the college official.

1.4.2. Complaint Procedure

Any person may notify a college official of an alleged violation of the Code and he or she will notify Campus Safety and Security, if appropriate. Complainants should report incidents as soon as possible following the occurrence of events that give rise to the complaint. If the complainant is a student, s/he should report the violation to a contact person e.g. Professor, Program Coordinator, staff member in service areas. Informal resolution and/or mediation of the complaint is encouraged wherever possible. Where informal resolution is not appropriate or does not resolve the matter, the Campus Safety and Security will conduct an investigation. Campus Safety and Security will inform the student that a complaint has been filed against them.

Step 2 - Investigation

1.4.3. Investigation

Campus Safety and Security will investigate the alleged violation. In conducting the investigation, Campus Safety and Security will interview the complainant, any witness, and the student, giving the student an opportunity to respond to the allegations against him/her.

Campus Safety and Security will complete an investigation report setting out the findings of the investigation as soon as possible and forward it to the appropriate college official. Every effort will be made to provide an investigation report to a college official within ten (10) business days of receipt of complaint. In the event of alleged Major Misconduct, the Director of Campus Safety and Security or designate may impose an Investigative Suspension Order in accordance with the Code of Conduct. The Investigative Suspension Order will remain in place until removed by either the Director of Safety and Security or designate.

Step 3 – Meeting and Informing

1.4.4. Meeting

The student will be informed, within five (5) business days of receiving the Investigative report of the allegations against him or her in writing and will be provided with an opportunity to respond to the allegations either as a written submission or at a meeting with the relevant Associate Dean or Department Administrator. For purposes of a violation notice, a student may request a meeting within five (5) business days of receiving the notice from Campus Safety and Security. If the student does not provide a written submission in response to the allegations or does not meet with the Associate Dean or Department Administrator after having been given a reasonable opportunity to do so, the complaint will move forward without such a response or meeting.

If the student raises new facts or other issues that may be relevant to the resolution of the matter, the Associate Dean or Department Administrator may refer the matter back to Campus Safety and Security to conduct further investigations and to issue a revised investigation report. The Associate Dean or Department Administrator is under no obligation to issue a decision until any newly raised fact or other issue has been investigated and resolved.

Step 4 – Decision and Sanction

1.4.5. Finding

The Associate Dean or Department Administrator will review the information from the investigative report provided by Campus Safety and Security and conduct any additional enquiries as necessary. Based on this information, the Associate Dean or Department Administrator will make a decision as to the guilt or innocence of the student within five (5) business days of receipt of the investigative report. In determining if there has been a violation of the Code, the decision will be based on a balance of probabilities, meaning the evidence shows it is more likely than not the alleged violation occurred.

1.4.5.1. Sanction

Where there has been a finding that the student's conduct violated the Code, an appropriate sanction or sanction(s) may be imposed as soon as possible, having regard to all the relevant circumstances including, but not limited to, the seriousness of the offence, the impact of the misconduct on the College, the College community or any individual specifically affected by the misconduct, prior violations of the Code or other College policies or procedures, and the impact of the penalty on the student's education. While considering possible sanctions, the Associate Dean or Department Administrator may consult with other relevant stakeholders in determining the appropriate sanction(s). If a sanction will result in impact on the student's academic status or progression, final determination will be referred to the Registrar and academic Dean. The sanction may commence at the beginning of the Student's next term if a student's registration at the College is interrupted for any reason. The decision, with brief reasons for the decision, shall be communicated in writing to the student by way of a Conduct Report. The Conduct Report shall include a brief description of any referral to the Registrar under this section, along with the result of the referral.

The Director of Campus Safety and Security shall inform the Registrar in writing of the proposed sanction, including the reasons why the sanction has determined it would be appropriate. The Director of Campus Safety and Security shall also provide the Registrar with a copy of the investigative report. If the Registrar agrees that expulsion or prohibition is the appropriate sanction, the Registrar shall impose the sanction on the student, in consultation with the Associate Dean/Dean or Dean of Students, as appropriate. If the Registrar does not agree that expulsion or prohibition is appropriate, the Registrar shall remit the matter to the Dean to determine a lesser sanction. In coming to his or her decision, the Registrar may, in his or her sole discretion, choose to meet with the student prior to issuing a decision.

The student may appeal the decision (see Appendix 3).

If students who were placed on an Investigative Suspension Order missed tests or the due dates for assignments during the period that the Order was in place, the following principles apply after the investigation has been completed:

- If no sanction is imposed, the student will be provided the opportunity to write any missed test and to hand in any missed assignment and will be supported in making up any other academic requirements and opportunities missed during the suspension.
- If a sanction other than suspension, expulsion or prohibition is imposed, the student will also be provided the opportunity to write any missed test and to hand in any missed assignment and will be supported in making up any other academic requirements and opportunities missed during the suspension.
- If a Short Term Suspension is imposed, the student will be permitted to write any missed final tests or final exams and to hand in any final culminating projects only, all other tests and assignments cannot be made up in any way.
- If a Long Term Suspension, expulsion or prohibition is imposed, the student will not be permitted to write any missed test or hand in any missed assignment.

APPEAL PROCEDURE

1. Conditions of Appeal

1.1 A student has the right to appeal a misconduct decision on one or more of the following grounds:

- a) There was a serious procedural error in the investigation process which was prejudicial to the respondent
- b) New evidence which was not available at the time of the earlier decision, has been discovered rendering the original decision unreasonable in light of the new evidence
- c) The sanction imposed is not consistent with the nature of the offence

1.2 A student initiates the appeal process by submitting a completed Non-Academic Appeals Form to the Vice President of Student Engagement and University Partnerships within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written decision from the Office of Campus Safety and Security. When writing an appeal, a student must submit the Non-Academic Appeals Form indicating:

- a) The conditions under which he or she is making the request
- b) The information or rationale that will be used to support the argument that the disciplinary decision being appealed was wrong or unfair
- c) The requested resolution

2. Submission of Appeal

Once the Non-Academic Appeals Form has been submitted, within three (3) business days of receipt of the appeal request, the Vice President of Student Engagement and University Partnerships, or designate, will determine if the reason for the appeal meets one or more of the grounds for appeal. If it is deemed that the appeal does meet one or more of the grounds for appeal, then the student will be granted an Appeal Hearing. If the Vice President deems the appeal does not meet one or more of the grounds for appeal, then s/he will notify the student in writing that his/her request for an appeal has been denied.

3. Appeal Hearing

3.1 An Appeal Hearing will be convened within five (5) business days of the decision to grant an appeal. The appellant and any other parties involved will be informed that the right of appeal has been granted by way of a written Notice of Appeal, which will include the date, time and location of the meeting. Along with the Notice of Appeal, Georgian will distribute the following documentation to all principle parties involved:

- a) the names of members of the Appeal panel
- b) the Non-Academic Appeals Form submitted by the student
- c) a written statement by the Hearing Officer (as appointed by the Vice President) indicating the rationale for the disciplinary decision; a list of witnesses that may be called if applicable;

a list of evidential materials that will be presented during the Hearing such as videos, photographs or physical evidence

3.2 Submitting a Non-Academic Appeals Form does not stay the implementation of the sanction(s) imposed by the Office of Campus Safety and Security. The student is required to abide by the sanction(s) until such time that the sanction(s) expires, or is changed or overturned through the Conduct Appeal Hearing.

3.3 The Dean of Students shall maintain a roster of 12 individuals to serve on a Discipline Appeal Committee. When vacancies occur, the Dean of Students will recruit new panelists, maintaining a balance of students and employees from across the College.

3.4 The Dean of Students or designate will convene a Discipline Appeal Committee consisting of three panelists including at least one student and will chair the Discipline Appeal as a non-voting member of the Committee.

3.5 The complainant and respondent will be notified of the appeal in writing. The notice shall explain the basis of the appeal, the procedure that will apply and any other details necessary for an expeditious and fair hearing.

3.6 An oral hearing will take place in front of three panelists and be chaired by the Dean of Students or designate. The appeal will be held in private and all proceedings will be confidential. The Discipline Appeal Committee will review the documentation related to the Student Conduct decision, and may seek information from any other source, as it deems relevant.

3.7 The appellant may have a support person of his/her choosing in an advisory capacity present throughout the proceedings or they may choose from a roster of trained student leaders which is maintained in Student Services.

3.8 The decision of the panel will be recorded in writing and promptly communicated to the appellant within two (2) business days of the appeal.

3.9 The decision of the panel will be final and binding on all parties with no further right of appeal within the College.

3.10 Records of Student Code of Conduct complaints and appeals will be maintained by Campus Safety and Security.

Every attempt will be made to meet the timelines set out in this Student Code of Conduct unless circumstances cause a delay

APPENDIX 5

SEXUAL VIOLENCE STUDENT RESOURCE

1. Sexual Violence, Sexual Assault and Consent

See also: Sexual Violence Procedure and Protocol #2-122

Sexual violence: A broad term that describes any violence, physical or psychological, carried out through sexual means or by targeting sexuality. This violence takes different forms including sexual abuse and sexual assault.

Sexual assault: Sexual assault is any type of unwanted sexual act done by one person to another that violates the sexual integrity of the victim and involves a range of behaviours from any unwanted touching to penetration. Sexual assault is characterized by a broad range of behaviours that involve the use of force, threats, or control towards a person, which makes that person feel uncomfortable, distressed, frightened, threatened, or that is carried out in circumstances in which the person has not freely agreed, consented to, or is incapable of consenting to. The victim of sexual assault can be a man or a woman and the attacker can be of the opposite or same sex of as the victim.

Consent: For the purpose of this Procedure, consent is the voluntary and explicit agreement to engage in the sexual activity in question. It is willingly agreeing to engage in specific sexual behaviour, and requires that a person is able to freely choose between two options: yes and no. This means that there must be an understandable exchange of affirmative words or conduct, which indicates a willingness to participate in mutually agreed upon sexual activity. It is also imperative that everyone understands the following:

- Silence or non-communication cannot be interpreted as consent and a person in a state of diminished judgment cannot consent.
- A person is incapable of giving consent if they are asleep, unconscious or otherwise unable to communicate.
- A person who has been threatened or coerced into engaging in the sexual activity is not consenting to it.
- A person who is drugged is unable to consent.
- A person is usually unable to give consent when impaired by alcohol and/or drugs.
- A person may be unable to give consent if they have a mental disability preventing them from fully understanding the sexual acts or sexual activity being contemplated.
- The fact that consent was given in the past to a sexual or dating relationship does not mean that consent is deemed to exist for all future sexual activity.
- A person can withdraw consent by words, expressions or conduct at any time during the course of a sexual encounter.
- A person is incapable of giving consent to a person in a position of trust, power or authority when the person in the position of authority is abusing that position to initiate a sexual relationship with a student or a subordinate.
- A person cannot give consent on behalf of another person.

- A person who is under the age of sixteen cannot consent to sexual activity with another person who is five or more years old than them, and a person who is under the age of fourteen cannot consent to sexual activity with another person who is two or more years older than them. For the purpose of this Procedure such persons will be referred to as persons not having reached the age of consent (see age of consent in Section 3.2).

A person initiating sexual activity must ensure clear and affirmative responses are communicated with the person they are engaging with sexually and that the person has reached the age of consent.

NOTE: The Criminal Code defines “consent” as follows:

The voluntary agreement of the complainant to engage in the sexual activity in question. No consent is obtained, where

- a) the agreement is expressed by the words or conduct of a person other than the complainant;
 - b) the complainant is incapable of consenting to the activity;
 - c) the accused induces the complainant to engage in the activity by abusing a position of trust, power or authority;
 - d) the complainant expresses, by words or conduct, a lack of agreement to engage in the activity;
- or,
- e) the complainant, having consented to engage in sexual activity, expresses, by words or conduct, a lack of agreement to continue to engage in the activity.

2. Reducing the Risk

2.1 Healthy Communication

- Make conscious, active choices.
- Mean what you say and express what you feel. Don’t “play games”.
- Be clear about your intentions and if you want to stop at any time, say so.
- Be assertive. If you are uncomfortable with someone’s actions toward you, say so and tell them to stop.
- If you are unsure of someone’s intentions or wishes, ask. Don’t make assumptions based on behaviour, body language, clothing, etc.
- Always ask for and obtain permission before touching, kissing, or engaging in any sexual behavior each and every time and for each and every activity.
- If you are uncomfortable talking about sex with a potential partner, you probably are not ready to have sex with this person.

2.2 General Risk Reduction Strategies

- Trust your instincts. If a situation feels wrong or dangerous, it might be. Get away and call for help.
- Always walk/exercise in pairs or groups.
- Avoid participating in distracting activities while running or walking (e.g. wearing headphones, talking on a cell phone, etc.).
- Keep your cell phone charged and accessible for emergencies.
- Pay attention to your surroundings. Avoid situations in which you might be vulnerable.

- Avoid taking shortcuts through dark, secluded areas.

2.3 Party Risk Reduction Strategies

- Avoid excessive use of alcohol and drugs.
- If you choose to drink, be aware of your limits and the factors that influence how quickly you will experience the effects of alcohol – such as food consumed, energy level, stress, general health, etc.
- If you start to feel lightheaded, nauseous, dizzy, or otherwise strange and you have not been drinking or had that much to drink, get help immediately. Your drink may have been drugged.
- Watch who makes your drink, cover it with your hand, and never leave your drink unattended.
- Make plans ahead of time so someone will know where you are. If your plans change, call that person and let her/him know the new plan.
- Never go to a bar or party alone! Always use the buddy system.
- Never leave your friends to fend for themselves. If you arrived with a group of four friends, leave with the same four friends. Look after one another.

2.4 Dating Risk Reduction Strategies

- Use care when selecting places you go on a first date. Try to go on a first date with a group of people you know well and in a public, populated place.
- When someone you just met at a party or bar invite you to her/his car or apartment, question her/his intentions.
- Do not think that because someone has spent a lot of time, attention, or money on you that it obligates you to repay that person sexually.
- Do not hesitate to say “NO” in any situation where you are uncomfortable or afraid.

3. College Contacts
