

In order to obtain a certificate of qualification (a “certificate”) from the TSSA as a Gas Technician you need to:

- Complete the Training Program
- Pass the Practical Evaluation
- Pass the Theoretical Examination

1

 Georgian

Successfully COMPLETE a

TRAINING PROGRAM

including examination and practical components delivered through a Training Provider (Georgian College) that is registered with, and accredited by, the TSSA.

2

 Georgian

or

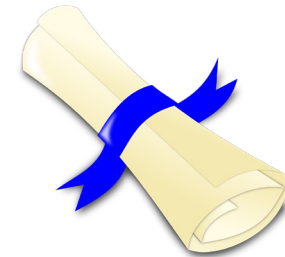

ACHIEVE an average score of 75% or higher on the PRACTICAL EVALUATION** in the applicable modules within the training program.*

Testing

ACHIEVE an overall average of 75% or higher on the TSSA THEORETICAL EXAMINATION.****

3

RECEIVE YOUR G3 LICENSE from TSSA

* If you fail to achieve 75% or higher on the practical evaluation at Georgian College, you can apply and be evaluated by TSSA

** You must pass both the practical evaluation and the theoretical examination within 1 YEAR from the end of the training