What impact can therapy dogs have on fostering positive student mental health and well-being? That’s what Dr. Bloom, his student researchers and Sweet Charity Medical Assistance Dogs are on a quest to find out. They designed, implemented and are evaluating an animal-assisted therapeutic program run in more than 100 local schools.