A student must be in good academic standing to receive approval for independent study. Courses must be completed within the normal semester dates.

Reason for requesting independent study:

- I am enrolled in a term in which the course is not offered
- There is a timetabling course conflict with other courses
- I cannot take the course in a subsequent term or at another institution

Once approvals have been received, the student must pay a service fee of $250 (subject to change) to the Office of the Registrar. (Tuition and ancillary fees for the course (s) will also be charged if applicable.)

- I understand that I must complete the full course. I may not use work previously completed to satisfy requirements of this independent study.
